He never thinks a man is truly great until he's dead.
And then he wipes away a tear and quotes what he has said.
He talks about the Nations that long since have passed away.
And mourns when he compares them with the Nations of today.
He talks about his boyhood and the fun that folks had then;
He talks about the actors that we never shall see again.
He vows that everything worth while long since has gone before,
And life to him is just one grand, sweet funeral—nothing more.

BASTARDY WARRANT

Issued Yesterday For a Prominent Young Man of Sardis

Miss Mary Gifford, a pretty and modest appearing young lady of eighteen summers, was a caller at the County Clerk's office yesterday.

She was accompanied by her brother and County Attorney O'Donnell.

Her mission was a sad one. She was there for the purpose of swearing to a bastardy warrant against John Bratton, who, under a promise of marriage, had taken advantage of her confiding nature and tender years.

Bratton instead of fulfilling his solemn vow and obligation deserted her in her trouble and went West.

Both are from the Sardis neighborhood, to which place he returned several days ago thinking perhaps nothing would be done in the matter.

When a woman's love turns to wrath, the tiger nature shows itself and the person on whom her hate is centered had better keep out of her reach.

A warrant for the young man's arrest was issued yesterday and it is to be hoped he will be made to right the wrong by honorable marriage.

MADE GOOD

Fly Young Man Repays Money Gotten From Mrs. Coulter.

About two weeks ago two young men were arrested and jailed for securing money under false pretense from Mr. M. W. Coulter of the St. Charles Hotel. Tuesday they were discharged from custody after having paid back the money illegally received, and all additional costs and expenses appertaining to their capture and keeping.

It was evidently the young man's first break, and under the circumstance the course pursued by the officials was right and proper. They have given him a chance to redeem himself.

The contrition of the man was a factor in his favor. When interviewed by a LEDGER representative on the night of his incarceration, he broke down and cried like a child. At first, when suggested that he communicate with his mother and inform her of his predicament, he was decidedly opposed to it. He did not want her to know of his disgrace.

It was the mother, however, who came to her son's rescue. She furnished the money necessary to pay the bills.

May it be a lasting warning and teach him that honesty is the best policy and pays a hundred cents on the dollar every time.

WHO'S WHO NOW?

Which Will It Be—Jim Kehoe or Judge Bennett?

JUDGE JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

From the latest and best information obtainable up to the hour of going to press yesterday, THE LEDGER's Congressional returns showed the re-election of Mr. Kehoe by a majority of 253.

The majorities in several counties were estimated; but later in the day telegrams came materially changing the complexion of affairs, and showing Bennett's election—providing these reported majorities are correct—

THE MOONSHINER'S DAUGHTER.

"The Moonshiner's Daughter" will be the next attraction at The Washington, Monday, November 14th. From the excellent satisfaction which the play has been giving during its three years on tour, it surely must not alone be a thoroughly enjoyable production but a positive meritorious melodrama from every standpoint. The play is a charming love story set in an atmosphere of the hills of Kentucky and Tennessee and deals with the lives of those sturdy specimens of mankind for whom the Government has officers constantly on the lookout—the Moonshiners. This melodrama is as good if not better than "To Die at Dawn," which gave such excellent satisfaction a few weeks ago.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; hence cases of deafness caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

The general result of the election, showing the overwhelming defeat of Parker, was given in yesterday's LEDGER; but it is astonishing to note some of Roosevelt's unprecedented majorities. For instance—

Minnesota	100,000
Montana	3,000
Nebraska	35,000
New Hampshire	20,000
